

Kensington Palace Gardens Bastille Day Ball
Charity Dinner and Party
Thursday 14th July 2011
From 6.30pm until late

This year, the Bastille Day Ball, organised by FranceInLondon.com* will be held in the Kensington Palace grounds behind the French Ambassador's Residence.

This exclusive fundraising event in aid of the main French charity members of La Fédération des Associations Françaises en Grande-Bretagne will be under the patronage of the French Ambassador.

The Ball has two aims:

- 1) to celebrate Bastille Day in style but more importantly,
- 2) To raise funds for the Fédération des Associations Françaises en Grande-Bretagne for them to assist their charitable members.

We invite you to join us at this fabulous event which is sure to be one of the highlights of this year's summer season.

For the Dinner Guests

Guests will be treated to a champagne reception before enjoying live entertainment throughout the evening, a delicious 4-course dinner, a grand auction and a draw followed by fireworks and of course dancing with live bands keeping the guests dancing late into the night.

- Champagne reception
- 4- course dinner
- Free wines and soft drinks
- A night packed with entertainment
- Fireworks, dancing with live bands
